ON THE ROAD To The Title

By David Cooper

BONNYRIGG vs BLACKTOWN

The next six weeks will be very important for everyone of the eight teams that are chasing a top five berth. No more important are these games, which could see one or the others chances improve or disappear. The teams that remain consistent over the next month or two will be there and these two should be in thick of it. Bonnyrigg hit back with a convincing win over Leichhardt last weekend, emphasising that they are not out of the running just yet. Finally made use of the chances that came their way. Paul Dee was in outstanding form against Leichhardt and was the catalyst for the win. Like last year he will have a big say in Bonnyrigg's finals hopes. Blacktown suffered from the Ryde City curse and could only manage a draw. Bonnyrigg suffered the same but lost, so at least Blacktown is one up on the Eagles. Were given a hiding by the Eagles at home but since then have settled down well. Will lift for this game and should be a highlight game of the year.

SUTHERLAND vs CENTRAL COAST

With neither side able to make the finals this year, it is case of building fore the future. At the present moment, Central Coast looks to have the edge in this area and have put in some solid performances this year, with luck not on their side. Sutherland is definitely in a transition stage and needs some lifting. After six straight losses, the Sharks will be hoping at least to make life tough for teams at the top and cause a few upsets. Craig Hobbs returned to the Sharks side and scored so maybe he can be the spark up front. The Coasties have been involved in some thrilling matches in recent weeks but on both occasions have let wins slip away. The Coasties will at least go in looking at keeping the goals coming with all their regular scorers getting amongst them last week. For me Coasties are due a win and on current form should get the points.

LEICHHARDT vs PARRAMATTA

On Leichhardt's performance against Bonnyrigg, it is hard to see them even troubling Parramatta. But such is the nature of this season, it would not surprise to see them come out and play much better in this game. The Tigers put in a very ordinary performance with many players below par. In fact it was only in the last ten minutes they showed any real zest but that was mainly because Bonnyrigg took their foot of the pedal. Parramatta though are piling on the points, unbeaten in there last five, four of which were wins. Were made to work hard against St. George but were always the team most likely to score. Should get Gabriel Mendez back for this one and it these games that he really shows what a class player he is. They have momentum going with them and on form should win this in a close one.

EASTERN SUBURBS vs ST. GEORGE

Easts suffered only their second defeat of the season, again to Bankstown. The Wanderers had not lost since Round 1 a 2-0 defeat to Bankstown and since then had swept all before them to be one of the better teams in the first half of the season. Were beaten 2-1 this time but maybe a loss is not such a bad thing and will have the players focused on returning to the winners circle as quickly as possible. They have also played a couple of games less than their rivals could so they still have an advantage. St. George put up a brave performance against defending premiers Parramatta to down by just a single goal. Their performances in the past month have indicated they are a much better team than their low placing. If they can get a goal or two they could cause a few problems for Easts but overall Easts fire power up front should see them win through.

RYDE CITY vs MACARTHUR

Ryde received a few positives from last week's draw with Blacktown and with an ounce of luck could have a win. With injuries effecting the team, coach Les DeCelis had no option but to play cautiously and try and hit on the break. And on many occasions they caused the Demons defence a few problems on the break. Also on a very positive note, was the defence line and how effective they were at shutting down the Demons attack. Macarthur will pose an equally strong attack, one, which is in very good form at the moment. All three strikers, Trevor Whiddett, Eric Williams and Jason Connolly are getting amongst the goals. This has seen them win five games on the trot and most of them in a convincing fashion, which should have their opposition a little worried. Ryde will put up a stiff test for the Rams but the latter should come away with the points.

CANTERBURY vs BANKSTOWN

Bankstown scored a very important win last weekend over Easts that in effect kept them in touch with the top five. A loss could have seen them fall a little behind, so to come up with a vital win over an in form team was a good result. The Berries themselves scored a dramatic win against the odds. Down 3-1 with just under 20 minutes to play, Canterbury suddenly found their target range and overwhelmed a shell-shocked Coasties to win 4-3. Jani Talcevski's goal just before full-time put them back on top of what is a very congested but interesting table. Both play with very different styles and with Bankstown signing a couple of new players including former leading goalscorer Nikolce Joseski, you can expect them to be on the attack throughout, while the Berries will play the counter-attack. Hard one to pick but at home the Berries have been very good and should just get home.

Leichhardt's Derek Poimer is all concentration as he moves forward.

DEE TAUNTS TIGERS

Bonnyrigg White Eagles season was reignited thanks to a superb performance by Paul Dee, in their comprehensive 4-2 win over Leichhardt Tigers at Lambert Park.

Dee had a hand in three of the goals and was a constant menace throughout the match down the right wing.

In fact so much was Bonnyrigg's dominance was that Leichhardt only had one shot at goal up until the 85th minute, when the home side capitalised on a relaxing Eagles defence to score two late goals.

The win came after several disappointing performances which has seen them drop vital points and catapulted them back into the congested leader board.

The first half was anything but good football with neither creating any chances of note but if any team looked more composed it was Bonnyrigg.

In fact the only highlight of the half came in the 28th minute. Dee's deep cross to the back post, found Tigers defender Tom Bazdaric all by himself, but he inexplicably tried to blast clear sending the ball into his own net off the post.

But it was after the break that Bonnyrigg really asserted their authority with Javier Mancino volleying spectacularly home from the edge of the area after just eight minutes.

Leichhardt finally had a shot at goal in the 56th minute; John Buonavoglia shooting wide but four minutes Bonnyrigg's went further ahead. Dee's neat play on the right and low, hard cross saw Tigers captain Jeremy Pettenon only able to chest the ball down, Colin Luff reading the play very well snuck in to smash home.

They made it 4-0 in the 71st minute, Dee placing his cross to the near post where Robert Gomez was able to stab home from close range.

The game was as good as over with Bonnyrigg relaxing and allowing Leichhardt to finally get something going.

They pulled a goal back with five minutes to go, Buonavoglia managing to beat Eagles keeper Mladen Kos to ball and lob it into the net before Borislav Dragas could clear.

They rounded off the scoring with a last minute goal to David Guzzo, driving home a fierce volley inside the far post from an acute angle.

Leichhardt: Bello-Amigo, Pettenon, Ortiz, Savoca, Guzzo, Poimer (Petrini), Buonavoglia, Tesoro, Miccolis, Bazdaric, Juric (Pirecca)

Bonnyrigg: Kos, Racker, Dragas, Richardson, Mancino (Watton), Harding (Neilson), Xuereb, Gomez (Skataric), Crnokrak, Luff, Dee.

The curse of Ryde City struck again with league leaders Blacktown City Demons forced to settle for a 1-1 draw at the Gabbie Stadium.

Despite a lean season top date, Ryde has now taken points off three teams that were leading the competition table at the time of playing.

Blacktown is the third of these victims and in the end they would have been happy with a point after a very lacklustre display.

This despite long time stalwart Damon Langan celebrating his 200th game for the Demons, and the presence of West Ham United officials.

Both sides started off very cautiously, with Blacktown's normally effective offence lacking spark and ideas.

The first half was uninspiring with very few scoring opportunities, Pat Bradley coming the closest with a shot from the edge of the area that shaved the crossbar.

The second half however had its moments and started off in fairly controversial circumstances. Six minutes into the half, Demons new signing Damien Brown swung over a great cross to the back post where Damien Foxe climbed high to head towards goal. The ball beat Ryde keeper Anthony Avellino but struck the bottom side of the crossbar and bouncing down to what looked like a goal.

After consulting with his linesman, who had raced back upfield as if it was a goal, referee Brett Hugo overruled his assistants call and awarded the Demons a corner, much to the home sides disgust.

Blacktown were now fired up and they should have taken the lead seven minutes later, when Steve Berry crossed to the back post, finding Brown free who put his header wide with the goal at his mercy.

Ryde tactics of sitting back and hitting on the break was starting to look quite effective, with Aydin Cetinay in particular causing the Demons defence a few problems.

And it was Jim Boudaher and Cetinay that combined for the opening goal in the 72nd minute. Boudaher started the movement sending a good ball wide to Cetinay on the right. He in turn sent a hard, low cross to where Boudaher continued his run and tuck home from close range.

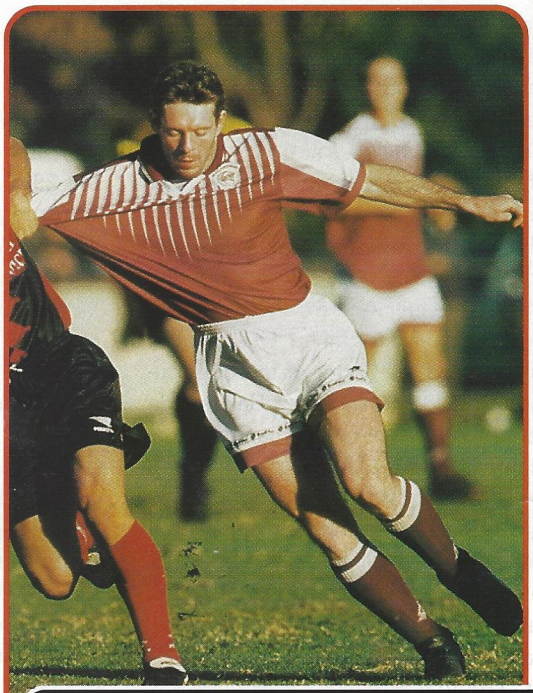
Demons keeper Fernando Greco was forced into a good save from a Paul Watkins drive.

Blacktown though upped the pace and was rewarded with an equalising goal from a corner; the ball eluding everybody except Aaron Holst whom slammed home from seven metres.

Blacktown had a last minute chance with Berry denied a goal by a goalline clearance from Jeff Kelly.

Blacktown: Greco, Foxe, Langan, Smith (Cleary), Angelucci, Berry, Bradley, Brown (Cutler), Blake, Van Egmond (Yates), Holst.

Ryde: Avellino, Johnsson (Boudaher), Cowley, Shipley, Watkins, Kelly, Koch, Peatey, Cetinay, Moffitt, Stubbs-Mills.



Macarthur's Eric Williams scored twice against Sutherland in their 3-1 win.

Central Coast was involved in there second thrilling and high scoring game in as many weeks, letting another potential win disappear.

Leading 3-1 against Canterbury-Marrickville, the Coasties allowed the visitors to score three goals in the last 20 minutes, Jani Talcevski getting the winner with just a minute to play.

The win for Canterbury allowed them to once again go top of the table after Blacktown were held to their draw with Ryde.

The Berries took an early lead when Spiro Hantzis' shot deflected off Brent Demery and past Gary Meier.

But from their it was the Coasties that took over with Peter Preston quickly levelling the scores with a low drive into the corner of the net after 15 minutes.

Five minutes after surviving a quick break and miss by Simon Fedele, the Coasties went ahead, Derek Caisley ending his run of outs in front of goal.

Each side traded good chances but it was the home side that went further ahead 20 minutes after the break, Paul Roberts beating two defenders in the penalty area and shooting home.

But once again they relaxed and Canterbury was back in the match when Jani Talcevski's shot struck Jon-Paul Bourke in the back, beating Meier again.

Buoyed by this Canterbury pushed forward and from a corner, Hantzis was able to shoot at goal after a scramble in the penalty area.

The Coasties responded and had two good cases for penalties, the second one given with just four minutes to play. However Stuart Sontag saw his penalty kick saved by Con Anastasiadis.

And in a dramatic finish, the Coasties were made to pay for that miss, Talcevski scoring his second goal with a long range shot which again took a deflection of a Coasties player and into the net.

Coast: Meier, Bourke, Margin, Knight, Preston, Hagistefanis (Beveridge), Roberts, Caisley (Kane), Sprod, Sontag, Demery.

Canterbury: Anastasiadis, Raeburn (Georgallis), Tsigolis (Markopoulos), Shepherd, Mendes, Hantzis, Jerkovic (Anagnostopoulos), Fedele, Nikas, Kategiannis, Talcevski.

Parramatta Eagles continued their surge up the ladder with a hard fought 1-0 win over a dogged St. George Saints at Melita Stadium.

It was the Eagles fourth win in five matches and now sees them just four points from leaders Canterbury.

The Eagles win was secured in the 24th minute, Saso Petrovski shooting past Saints keeper Andrew Prentice after a good cross from Sasha Utjesenovic. Parramatta had the better of the opportunities but couldn't finish off a Saints side that performed much better than their low position on the table.

Unfortunately for them Ryan Toombs was sent off with just minutes remaining.

Parramatta: Holmes, Utjesenovic, Reveley, Dowling, Jee, Boskovski, Meilak, Petrovski, Kinnimont (Islas), O'Grady, Karavatakis (Mittiga)

Macarthur Rams made it five wins on the trot with a convincing 3-1 win over Sutherland Sharks at Lynwood Park.

The win leaves the Rams in third spot just a point behind leaders Canterbury and in a strong position to challenge for premiership honours.

With Jason Connolly missing the onus fell to Eric Williams and Trevor Whiddett to get amongst the goals and they responded with two and one respectively.

Sutherland started brightly enough with new signing Levi Stephen getting two shots at goal in the early stages.

But it was Macarthur who took the lead with their first meaningful shot on target. Good movement between several players, allowed Ben Green to shoot, hitting the crossbar and bouncing down for Whiddett who headed home from five metres.

From this moment on it was Macarthur who made most of the play and they went further ahead in the 29th minute. David Reid made a solo run down the left and supplied Williams with a perfect cross and he made no mistake with his header.

But two minutes later, Sutherland reduced that lead, Craig Hobbs sneaking in front of Rams keeper John Crawley to side foot the ball home.

The Rams however made sure of victory 15 minutes after the break, Williams controlling Kain Rastall's cross beautifully and shooting past the despairing dive of Paul Henderson.

Macarthur: Crawley, Lloyd, Bourke (off), Valle (off), Reid, Williams, Whiddett Green (off), Cummins, Willard, Rastall (subs from Kerr, Rayner, Macerola, O'Shea)

Bankstown City Lions proved to be Eastern Suburbs bogey team, with a 2-1 win at Jensen Park, their second victory over them this season.

After winning the pre-season competition, Easts went down in Round 1 to the Lions and now after going unbeaten since then, suffered just their second loss of the season.

Zoki Adioski made it three goals in as many games with the vital opening goal just a minute before the break.

They went further ahead in the 59th minute, Robert Angievski getting his second goal of the year.

Easts fought back to try and get back into the match but had to wait until the 89th minute to get a goal, Jason Bennett getting his sixth of the season.

LANGAN JOINS 200 CLUB

The 200 Club is a rare occurrence in modern day football, especially with the one club. It requires loyal service, years of dedication and probably a lot of luck.

And to achieve this at just the tender age of 26 is also a remarkable achievement.

Well it happened for one of the Super League's most respected players last weekend with Damon Langan marking his 200th against Ryde.

For Langers' though it was just another game and took all the hype in his stride, including receiving a plaque from West Ham United supremo Peter Storrie (see above), who is in Australia to observe how the things are progressing since they became main sponsors of Blacktown City.

Langers' made his first grade debut as a 17-year old when Blacktown were playing in the National League back in 1990 against South Melbourne.

The Demons were relegated that year and since then he has enjoyed great success at a club he regards as the best in this state.

"I'm very happy here and why would I want be anywhere else. They are by far the best club in the Super League and are the envy of most other clubs in the league."

He has even knocked back quite a number of offers to go overseas and play National League, which he regrets but has never, let it worry him greatly.

So what was his greatest moment in the Demons colours?

"I would say winning the 1991 Grand Final against Canberra Deakin. We had a great side and being the youngest in the side amongst some great players was an honour and a great experience."

Was this the best team you have played with?

"I had the fortune of playing with some good sides but the 1991 side was an exceptional side. We had players like Craig Mason, Mike Gibson, John Gibson, Darren Northam, Dominic Longo, Peter Bennett and many more, so I would have to say yes."

At 26, Damon believes he has quite a number of years left in him and who knows with his commitment and luck with injuries, he may double this amount and achieve a milestone even more remarkable.

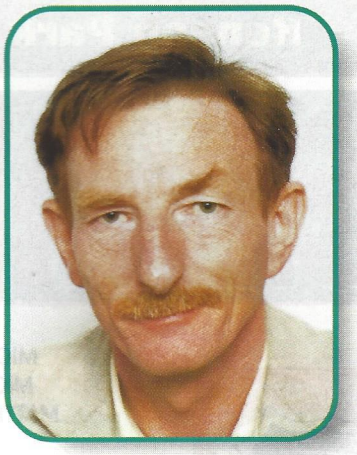
First Division Weekend Review

PAUL GOODWIN REPORTS



LEADERS BOTH WIN AWKWARD AWAY GAMES

Only one team managed to win at home at the weekend in a programme which saw leading contenders Stanmore Hawks and Fairfield Bulls both travelling to the northern parts of the city to play tricky away matches.

The lucky home side was the Hurstville City Minotaurs who defeated Illawarra Lions 3-1 at Hurstville Oval.

It didn,t look good early on when a Minotaurs player broke the half time scoreless deadlock with an own goal five minutes after the restart.

Jim Melissourgos then put things back in his side,s favour with a goal three minutes later, but it was only in the last five minutes that the locals got the all important lead.

Tom Pontidas was on target in the 85th and then Soc Bakafoukas nabbed a third right at the end for a comfortable win.

Mid-table teams Auburn and Penrith batted out a 0-0 draw at Mona Park stretching Auburn,s unbeaten run to five now, but doing nothing much for Penrith,s own fading title hopes.

Rockdale won again, this time taking all three point from Mount Pritchard at Cook Park, where Goce Trpovski got his side under way with an 8th minute goal.

Rockdale suffered a blow when Nikolce Kojdovski was red carded in the 35th minute, but this handicap was nullified when the Mounties, Joe Bruni also received his marching orders in the 56th minute.

John de Francesco shocked Rockdale when he scored with a sensational strike in the 70th minute, but Aleks Chumkowski eventually grabbed the winner for the Suns with just five minutes to go, thus achieving the team,s second win on the trot, but, more importantly, their third in their last four games .

Belmore managed to hold Bathurst to 1-1 at Blick Oval where an Angelo Petratos goal in the 31st was cancelled out by an Adam Collins effort in the 43rd.

Belmore haven,t played much lately, but their recent form is sound, having been beaten narrowly by Moorebank and edging out the Minotaurs a few weeks back. Wet weather has held them back a little and some new players who have arrived with new coach Makis Nezeritis should help them in the second half of the season.

The leaders Fairfield Bulls found themselves a goal down to Manly-Warringah Dolphins at Cromer Park after a lack-lustre first half performance.

Perhaps some well chosen words from player-coach Marshall Soper helped focus them better after the break as they tore into Manly and were very quickly on level terms.

Manly saw plenty of the ball in the first half, but did not really use it to best advantage.

Angelo Rodic in the Fairfield goal caught Mark Beldham,s well struck 13th minute strike with a spectacular dive to his right, but it was a rare look at goal by the home side which wasted the ball once near enough to goal to use it profitably.

Tony Krslovic did not get the service he needed, but even he was disappointing and well taken care of by the big Fairfield defenders, whenever he entertained hopes of sniffing out a chance.

The chances fell mostly to Fairfield who used a counter attacking approach and it was mostly the agility of Dolphins keeper Marin Pasalich which kept them at bay.

In the 16th Sasha Talevski gave Danny Barbalace the slip and sauntered into the area, only for Pasalich to get down well to smother the shot.

Then David Petrovic broke away and with the keeper only to beat sliced his shot wide of the right post.

Pasalich reacted well to save a well taken free kick from Darren Iocca in the 28th minute.

>From a free kick on the right touchline, in the 36th, the ball was lifted high into the area, Danny Barbalace contested a header and the ball fell nicely at the feet of Damien Rosenthal at the edge of the area.

Rosenthal slammed a first time shot past a helpless Rodic for an unexpected Manly lead.

Manly attacked from the off, but were caught out badly when Rodic sent a huge clearance deep into the Dolphins half where Iocca chased the ball with defender Kelvin Foster.

Surprisingly Iocca won the race for possession and then advanced on goal before picking his spot at the far post where he tucked the ball cleverly past a hopelessly exposed Pasalich.

Danny Townsend looked set to score again for Manly when he gave a defender the go by and waltzed into the Fairfield penalty area. Instead of offering a first time shot from wide on the right he elected to provide the pass for Krslovic who made a real meal of the opportunity and directed his shot tamely at the keeper.

Iocca was enjoying a god spell up front, with his deceptive turn of speed and almost helped the Bulls to a second goal in the 53rd, but skipper Rick Giometti lifted his shot well over the bar after being fed a nice pass by Iocca.

Giometti did figure in the second goal when it did come four minutes later.

>From his position wide on the right he squared a pass to the in-form John Tratselas who fed Talevski with a ball which the latter steered past Pasalich via the inside of the right hand post.

Talevski was then out of luck in the 77th when Pasalich saved well from close range.

Talevski scored the third for Fairfield in the 80th after a probing run by Jeff Suzor and though the first shot was cleared off the Manly line by Greg Walley nobody thought to put the ball out of play quickly enough and Talevski accepted the invitation to have another go,

While Krslovic was thwarted by Rodic in the 84th from a well struck free kick, Manly were well out of contention near the end asTalevski claimed his hat trick.

Brought down on the edge of the box, wide out on the right, Talevski converted from the spot for his hat trick.

The win secured the Bulls in first position after the first game of the return series of matches.

Stanmore continues to press hard, despite a growing injury list. They struggled to make chances against a depleted Hills United side at Fred Caterson on Saturday and although the home side lost skipper Darren Moss to a red card shortly before the break and Andrew Bow joined him in the 80th minute, Stanmore did not capitalise until the last ten minutes or so.

There were few chances for either side in the first half with Peter Vezos toiling well for Hills without any joy and very little seen of the Stanmore attack.

Geoff Dwyer set up Vezos with the best opening in the 45th, but Hawks, goalie Paul Kyprianou came out well to save the day.

Mario Rositano should have made more of his opportunity in the 48th when free inside the area and with two players in support. He ran onto a Peter Kypreos pass, but fired wide with the waiting Nick Bolianitis left wondering why the pass had not been provided when the keeper was completely exposed.

the area from wide on the right in the 52nd and almost took everyone by surprise, including himself, when his diagonal ball, intended as a pass, rolled against the post and was hastily cleared, with the keeper beaten.

Stanmore finally got the goal which seemed was never going to arrive when Chris Sciberras delivered a cross from the left for Eddie Briscoe to turn sharply and then hammer past Shaun Woods in the 56th.

Woods saved well from the marauding Michael Lardis in the 64th, but the visitors should have been well in front by that stage.

Instead they nearly surrendered the slender lead they did have when, from a Bob Casserley cross from the left, Shane Coombes hit a first time shot which had Kyprianou beaten but smashed against the crossbar.

Substitute Phil Cacciola finally made sense of it all with two late goals, both well taken, illustrating his good finishing skills.

He got on the end of a nice through pass from Briscoe in the 84th and then finished off in the 89th from an equally good pass from Sciberras.

Hills missed striker Alan Lindley badly and have little up front to offer at the moment. Their defence was sound, with Damon Thompson winning everything in the air and both Casserley and Dwyer resilient.

ROUND SIXTEEN PREVIEW

Auburn meets an improved Belmore at Mona Park and if past encounters are anything to go on then Belmore may have a very good chance of ending Auburn,s run of good results.

With many new players in the Belmore ranks anything may happen on Saturday, but Auburn must start favourites on form shown in recent weeks.

The big Sunday game is at Arlington Oval where Stanmore meets the imposing Hurstville City Minotaurs and the likelihood of Burim Zajmi returning will please Hawks supporters, as his midfield presence has been sorely missed for most of the season.

Stanmore should win, but a lot depends on their forwards putting away the chances and the mercurial Minotaurs will be out to show them that they are not a spent force.

Fairfield Bulls meets Penrith at Nineveh Field and while it is sure to be a tough game, the Bulls will be expecting another three points to go into the bag here.

Substitute Phil Cacciola finally made sense of it all with two late goals, both well taken, illustrating his good finishing skills.

Rockdale should account for a struggling Hills at the Soccer Centre, Bathurst ought to be too strong for A C United at Alex Lamberton and Illawarra Lions are favoured to down Manly at Ian McLellan.

The Mount Pritchard side taking on Moorebank at Cook Park will remember well their first round success at Hammondville and hopes will be high for a repeat.

It could be quite close again and a repeat showing cannot be ruled out.

This week we take a look at Groups C and D, which features hosts France.

Group C (Denmark, France, Saudi Arabia, South Africa)

France have enormous pressure on them to be a success. The expectations of playing at home and the fact they have a first class squad, means that the French people will be expecting nothing less than at least a semi-final berth.

After their huge disappointment at Euro 96 (not going through to the final)it has been a long wait for the French, who have had to endure a long series of friendly matches.

France boasts some tremendous players. Zidane, Deschamps and Djorkaeff are all first class midfielders. With all playing successfully in the cut-throat Italian league, these three will be the main focus of the home side. Not only as playmakers but as goalscorers as well. Unfortunately this is where the French have a few problems - up front. It is hoped the talented Thierry Henry will step up and show his undoubted talent.

While France is a standout in this Group, choosing a second place is more difficult. I am gunning for Denmark but South Africa remains my darkhorse for a second round berth.

France's key player Youri Djorkaeff

Surprisingly this is only Denmark's second appearance at the World Cup finals. Performed well in 1986, going through to the second round and since then scored that remarkable victory in the 1992 European Championships.

Denmark did just enough to win their Qualifying Group against strong opposition in Croatia and Greece. The big three of this squad is the Laudrup brothers - Michael and Brian - and brilliant goalkeeper Peter Schmeichel. If these three are on fire, Denmark will be hard to beat. Brian is immensly talented, while Schmeichel is generally regarded as the best keeper in the world.

South Africa makes their first trip to a World Cup and should put up a good showing in France. Since allowed back into the international fold, they have not put a foot wrong. Won the African Nations Cup (1996) and lost the final earlier this year to Egypt, as well as qualify for the World Cup after finsihing top of their qualifying group.

Benedict McCarthy is set to be the star of their campaign after some fantastic performances for his side recently. With many players now plying their trade in Europe, they should be watched carefully.

Saudi Arabia has spared no expense in their attempts to succeed in France. 1994 winning World Cup coach Carlos Alberto Parreira (Brazil) is in charge. After making it to the second round of the 1994 World Cup, much is expected of this team. Squeaked home to win their qualifying group after many anxious moments.

Confederations Cup exposed their weaknesses, winning just one game (albeit rather luckily) against Australia and thrashed by Brazil and Mexico. Star players are Oweiran and Mauwalid, two midfielders with plenty of skill and an eye for goal.

Group D (Bulgaria, Nigeria, Paraguay, Spain)

This is definitely one of the toughest qualifying groups of France 98. Spain is looking as the likely winners with the runners-up spot up for grabs.

Spain are perennial finalist but also perennial underachievers. For a country that is blessed with some of the best club sides in the world and some fine players, Spain have traditionally disappointed at this level. However there are signs that this might change in 1998. Having moved through their qualifying group unbeaten - against opponents such as Yugoslavia and the Czech Republic.

Their main strength is at the back with Zubizarreta behind a defence with no nonsense players like Nadal and Sergi. However in Raul, they have a player that has world class about him, while Enrique is re-emerging as a top striker.

On recent form, they are capable of winning the whole tournament.

The battle for second spot could go a couple of ways. I am leaning towards Nigeria mainly because of their significant rise in world football circles and the number of players they have playing with some of Europe's top clubs. These players such as Kanu, Babayaro, Ikpeda and Oliseh have blossomed and after success in the 1996 Olympics, they know they have the ability to achieve great things at this level.

Bulgaria were the team of the 1994 finals in the USA, eventually finishing fourth. They finished top of their qualifying group, finishing just ahead of Russia and have a very similar squad to that of 1994. Experienced yes but with no less than eight players over 30, they might run out of steam in most games. Much will rest on Stoichkov's shoulders but Balakov is a key in midfield. A chance if these players can fire and must beat Nigeria to qualify.

Paraguay are the outsiders of this group but should not be taken lightly in France. Finished second in the South American Qualifiers behind Argentina.

The undoubted star of their side is goalkeeper and set piece specialist Jose Luis Chilavert. He is a legend in his country, this never more evident with his equalising goal against Argentina, direct from a free kick around the wall during qualifying. They however look light on to progress any further.

HAJDUK HELD BY HURSTVILLE

The big Saturday game at Hurstville Oval ended all square, with honours belonging to the locals in the first half and then the visitors dominating in the second.

After the lively Robert Babaic had been brought down on the flanks, in the 25th minute, Hurstville were awarded a free kick which Babaic took himself . His excellent cross found the head of Gary Deprato who beat the keeper nicely at the far post.

Hurstville found themselves with a lot of defensive work to do in the second half as the Hajduk team sought the equaliser and entertained high hopes of getting the winner as well.

Despite the dominance they were unable to penetrate and Hurstville keeper Tom Miletic also weighed in with some good saves.

Hurstville,s Daniel Maton looked set to extend his side,s lead near the finish, but after rounding the keeper and placing the ball beyond his man, he was denied by a clearance off the line by Peter Banicevic.

The miss proved costly as Hajduk went on to draw level in the 83rd minute, Jack Costello getting the ball over the line after a tense period of play inside the Hurstville area.

Costello then sent over a cross from the right which a defender cleared to the feet of Michael Pfeifer, but the latter,s shot was deflected away for a harmless corner, right near the end.

It was the second draw in succession for Hajduk and with Dulwich Hill,s game at Liverpool delayed until Tuesday the team running second missed another chance to make up valuable ground.

Greystanes managed to pick up a other 1-1 draw at Bathurst Street park against a useful Mount Druitt who went ahead in the 11th minute from a Mickey Mohammed header, the result of a ball crossed in by Steve Popley.

Darren Crittenden went close twice before getting his Stanes, side level in the 56th minute.

>From Darren Waterson,s free kick the header beat Cooke to give the home side hope of an overdue win.

But Mount Druitt, after soaking up plenty of pressure, stormed home and it was only misses by Popley and a smart save by David Apps from a Graham Cowan long range drive which kept Greystanes on good terms.

A free kick near the end of the game at Westminster Park gave Parramatta City a vital point, with Abdellatif netting for a club which released its coach, Danny Aboud, just recently and made Gladesville work hard in the second half to hang on for a draw.

It might have been a lot different had Sepp Disch put away a twice taken penalty, but the big striker did at least score earlier on to break the ice for his new club after transferring from Dulwich Hill.

Arncliffe Scots had the embarrassing situation of scoring four goals and still being beaten.

Alexander won 6-4, with Manuel Sarikakis scoring a rare hat trick, the opener coming in the 16th minute.

His first goal was cancelled out by a brilliant acrobatic kick by Zlatko Nastevksi in the 22nd, but the game then see-sawed until Sarikakis grabbed two inside four minutes midway through the second half.

A prod home by Vence Janevski in the 39th, a free kick from Bill Pilovski in the 54th and a solo effort by Louis Klimovski in the 79th were the Arncliffe contributions to the goal feast at Marrickville Oval.

Alexander, apart from Sarikakis, had Manuel Pavlidis netting in the 33rd, Georgio Manuli in the 52nd and John Cosentino in the 78th, mostly the result of good build ups and cool finishes.

Sydney District beat University 3-0 at David Phillips Field, introducing three new players into an already bolstered team, going ahead as early as the 7th from a Gus Villazon header from a Sal d,Albora cross.

With Tim Andersen and the others at the back defending well, Districts managed to repel the danger of livewire flankman Sohail Mohideen, who posed a big threat for long periods.

The absence of Victor Jago and fellow strikers Duncan Boss-Walker and Tim Nelson did not help the students, cause, but this Districts side is firing now and the goal from newcomer Louis Castagiani from long range in the 37th typified their class.

Substitute Paul Summer added a third in the 85th, but with wins and losses on alternate match days, it seems, this Districts side must gain consistency if it is to be taken seriously as a top four contender.

Teenage Revolution

By Barry Davis

The rain appears to have vanished, at least for the time being, but its legacy was the deferment of several matches. In Super Youth League two Round 11 matches and one of the rearranged matches did not go ahead. Sydney Olympic could not play against Parramatta Eagles nor could Newcastle Breakers take on Wollongong City and the saturated Lynwood Park surface could not cope with the rescheduled Macarthur v Gladesville fixture. In Division One Youth League Ryde City were unable to play against Southern Branch and the Division Two Youth League matches between Hajduk Wanderers and Mt Pritchard and Hawkesbury City against Mt Druit Town Rangers could not proceed. If this is causing headaches for the various home clubs, it must be creating migraines for the popular Graham Crawhall at the NSW Soccer Federation office. Teenage Revolution will attempt to keep you up-to-date with the rescheduling of these matches as the information comes to hand.

SUPER YOUTH LEAGUE

Despite not playing over the past weekend Sydney Olympic continues to lead the way in the top division with Southern Districts in hot pursuit. Gadesville Hornsby are not that far behind and they have games in hand over those two but fourth placed Newcastle Breakers have played more games than any of the top three and their chances of winning the Club Championship look to be a bit remote at the moment.

Blacktown City got the majority of the points from their matches against Sydney United at the Gabbie Stadium and they are now sitting in overall fifth place as a result. The unpredictable United 13s gained the three points with a 1-0 win but that was to be the end of the joy for the visitors. George Fallah's 14s got the full ration with a 1-0 victory and then Peter Denyer's 15s continued the good work with a 2-1 win and they remain in third place as a result. Greg McGriskin's 16s did the job for the home club once again with a nice 1-0 win over Ian Rudgely's United boys.

Macarthur Rams had their best results of the year when they visited Marconi, gaining eight very valuable and pulling seven points clear of last place as a direct result. Scott Houghton's 13s continued their good form and moved into fourth place as a result of their 4-1 win. Tony Judge's 14s were considered to have been a bit unlucky on the day as they were forced to settle for a 1-1 draw and Casey De Bruin's 15s battled out their fourth consecutive draw, this time 1-1, against their slightly better performed opponents. Turning out in the Marconi Colts strip did not do the home club's 16s much good as Mark Williams' 16 claimed a 1-0 win for the Rams, their first for the season.

Sutherland Shire also had a very good day as they earned ten points from Leichhardt Tigers at Bates Drive. Terry Stewart's 13s started the day well with a 2-0 win which helped them to maintain their third placing on the table. Paul Smith's 14s moved into fifth place thanks to a 1-0 win and Max Groll's 15s found some form in front of goal with a 4-1 spanking of the visitors. The only hiccup for Sutherland occurred in the 16s who had to settle for a 1-1 draw.

Southern Districts must have enjoyed their visit to Cromer Park as they claimed all twelve points from Manly Warringah. Bob Rasso's Districts 13s remain in second place thanks to a 2-1 win over Richard Paddle's lads. And then Sam Isaac's 14s grabbed first place with a healthy 4-1 win over the home team. George Allebi's 15s continued the trend when they cleaned up Mark Gale's lads 4-2 and this was followed by a solid performance from John Alvarez's 16 who completed the rout with a very comfortable 4-0 win.

Eastern Suburbs had a really difficult time of their first home game at Blick Oval when they met Gladesville Hornsby and allowed their guests to leave with ten points in their pockets. The day started well enough for the home club as their 13s battled out a 1-1 draw with the better performed Gladesville but that was to be the end of their pleasure for the day. Gladesville's fourth placed 14s continued their success story with a 4-2 win and then Gladesville provided a soccer lesson in the 15s with a 7-0 thumping of Easts. The home team did well in the 16s to keep second placed Gladesville to a 2-0 win.

Sydney United played a rescheduled Round 5 series of matches against Southern Districts at the Croatia Sports Centre on Sunday but they didn't get much joy from them. Southern Districts made off with the points in the 13s with a 1-0 win and then they repeated the dose in the 14s with a 2-0 win. United gained the sole pleasure for the day from a 1-0 win in the 15s but Districts finished them off in the 16s with a substantial 4-0 victory.

DIVISION ONE YOUTH LEAGUE

Southern Branch have maintained their lead on the Combined Table but only just! They didn't play last weekend and Central Coast are now only a point behind them but they have played eight additional matches. AC United are only one point further back and they are looking reasonably good. St George are twenty-two points behind the leaders but they have eight matches in hand on them and they have played sixteen matches less than Central Coast and ten fewer than AC United so they remain the dark horses.

Rockdale City Suns had a reasonably good day when they faced CSI Schofields at the Rockdale Sports Centre, earning seven points in the process. Their day started dreadfully though as CSI's 13s whacked them 7-1 However, they got back on track when the Alex Poposki coached 14s won 4-2 over cellar dwelling CSI. The 15s battled out a tough 0-0 draw and then the home team came good in the 16s with a 2-0 victory.

Illawarra Lions had a fairly god time of it when they met Canterbury Association at the BHP Sports Stadium, netting nine points for their efforts on the day. They began very well with a very comfortable 6-1 win in the 13s to remain in third place but then Ian Littlewood's Canterbury 14s evened things up with a 1-0 win. The Lions' second placed 15s cleaned up Canterbury with a 4-1 win in a rather predictable result. Then the Lions 16s went on with the job, winning 2-1.

St George continued to show that they will be a real threat at the business end of the season when they earned ten points from their day against the struggling Nepean Association at St George Stadium. Their 13s moved into third place as result of their 3-0 win over last placed Nepean and then the visitors surprised Saints with a battling 1-1 draw. However, St George resumed their winning ways with a 2-0 win in the 15s and then they demolished Nepean in the 16s with an 11-1 win.

AC United earned seven points toward their promotion bid when they met Bankstown Association at Neville Reserve. The visiting club's 13s continued their good form with a 2-1 win, although the final score was closer than many would have expected. Bankstown then proceeded to unexpectedly knock off AC's second placed 14s 2-1. It must be said that Bankstown are reasonably well-performed, having lost only once in ten matches. The home club continued to do well in the 15s as they scored a 1-1 draw against Luigi Bucciarelli's third placed AC. The visitors bounced back in the 16s though with a 3-0 win to secure third place over their nearest rivals who remain in fourth place.

Bonnyrigg White Eagles split the points evenly with Blacktown Association when they met at the Serbian Centre. The White Eagles inched closer to the top four in the 13s with a 3-0 win over the visitors. And their 14s jumped over Blacktown on the table with a solid 3-1 win. The table-topping Blacktown 15s continued their success story and gained the Association's first points for the day with a 5-1 win. Blacktown went on to win the 16s 4-1, placing themselves within striking distance of the top four.

Central Coast did well again when they played Penrith Panthers at Weir Reserve, showing that they are by no means out of the race for promotion to the top echelon. The Coasties remained in second place in the 13s with a 6-0 win over the battling Panthers. However, the home team bounced back in the 14s with a 1-0 win which moved them up the table to fifth place, one point behind Central Coast. The Coasties resumed their lead for the day in the 15s with a 3-1 win and then their top-of-the-table 16s knocked off second placed Penrith 2-0 to gain a four point advantage in that competition.

There were four catch-up rounds played on Sunday in this division and the results will be viewed with some interest by many.

At the BHP Sportsground Illawarra Lions took on Bonnyrigg White Eagles without a great deal of success. The 13s ended in a 1-1 draw but bonnyrigg gained the upper hand in the 14s with a solid 6-0 win. Illawarra gained the full ration of points in the 15s with a handy 1-0 win but the White Eagles had the final say with a 2-1 win.

Bankstown Association took on St George at Nevvile Reserve and they allowed the visitors to get away with the majority of bthe points. Bankstown must have known they were in for a difficult day from the very beginning when they lost the 13s 0-4. This was closely followed by a 0-3 loss in the 14s. Bankstown tough it out in the 15s to earn a 1-1 draw and then the 16s had an equally hard time of it when the teams could not be split at the final whistle with the match ending in a 2-2 draw.

Canterbury Association had a successful day and that would have surprised many people considering their opponents were the ambitious AC United. They began the day with a very good 3-0 win in the 13s but they could not maintain the momentum and promptly lost the 14s 0-1. However, Canterbury bounced straight back with a rather surprising 3-0 win in thw 15s to add to Luigi Bucciarelli's headaches over the weekend. Canterbury went on with the job in the 16s with a close but definite 3-2 win in the 16s.

CSI Schofields finally had a very good day as the reaped twelve points from Nepean Association who can't seem to take a trick. CSI got up 6-2 in the 13s to put them back on track for what they hope will be a semi-final berth. Then CSI won the 14s 2-0 and followed up immediately with the same scoreline in the 15s. The scoreline was different but the margin was the same in the 16s who won 3-1.

DIVISION TWO YOUTH LEAGUE

Macquarie Sports nabbed the majority of the available points from Stanmore Hawks when they played at Northlakes Oval on Saturday. Macquarie hung on to first place in the 13s despite dropping two points in their 3-3 draw with the Hawks. Then the club continued the good form with a 1-0 win in the 14s over the fourth placed Hawks. Macquarie have really turned some heads following their 1-0 over the top-of-the-table Stanmore. However, Stanmore came good at the end of the day when their competition-leading 16s posted a 2-0 win over the home club.

Ku-Ring-Gai Association also did well on the day, earning seven points at home at the expense of visiting Granville Association. The Parklands Oval based outfit started well with a nice 1-0 win in the 13s but then Granville gave them quite a shock in the 14s when they held Ku-Ring-Gai to a 0-0 draw. As expected, the Granville 15s proved too strong for the locals and they delivered a 6-0 result to clearly establish the difference in class. Ku-Ring-Gai then bounced back in the 16s with a 2-0 win.

Hills United played their home game against Parramatta City on Sunday because Hugh McCrory's senior teams were using Fred Caterson Reserve for a State League match on Saturday. Hills managed to snare the majority of the points once again to stay at the top of the tree on the Combined tables. They won the 14s with a comprehensive 4-0 result and then did the job again in the 14s with a 2-0 scoreline. They continued the very good work with another solid 2-0 result in the 15s but Parramatta's 16s got the better of them in the final match of the day, winning by a convincing 3-0.
